

Gospel Brunch

Sojourner House's Gospel Brunch, held on October 18, drew 144 guests on a beautiful Saturday afternoon for an elegant buffet, awards presentation, and inspirational music. Guest performers included Holy Name Church Choir, United for Peace, Minister Lawrence Nunes, Sojourner House Players, and Refined 313.

Sojourner House board member Gianna Boulet with Ann Boulet and Carlene O'Donnell.

Angel Cooper, age 9, and Anelle Cooper, age 6, enjoy a cup of hot cocoa.

Julnelle Fortes receives the Empowerment Award from Director of Advocacy Donna Williams

Stephanie and Glenn Robinson.

The members of Refined 313 receive the Inspirational Award from Donna Williams. From left to right are Rosalind Campbell, Lydia Angel Cooper, and Melody Forrest.